Re: Zahn v. Napleton Buick, et al.
Case No.: 04 M1 23226

Dear Ms. Zhan:

D'Andrea Buick, Inc. has been maintaining your car upon its premises since September, 2003. You have refused to retrieve your vehicle, and further, have refused to accept our settlement offer. D'Andrea Buick, Inc. refuses to maintain the vehicle any longer. Please contact this office to arrange for retrieval of the vehicle, immediately. If the vehicle is not removed within a reasonable amount of time, we will be forced to petition the court for relief, including authority to dispose of the vehicle, and will pursue our counterclaim for storage fees. Usual and customary charges for storage of vehicles at the facility are $30 per day. I look forward to hearing from you.

Very truly yours,
